Leadership Study Abroad Spain and Portugal

This 11-13 day study abroad includes a trip through Spain and Portugal. Along the way, you will explore rich culture and history of both countries. We will visit Barcelona, Valencia, Granada, Costa del Sol, and Seville, just to name a few. The course objectives are to teach students about international and culturally diverse perspectives on leadership and ethics. Examples of leadership in areas of government, history, art, literature, education, international relations, diversity and service will be examined. Below you will find the link to enroll on the trip.

Student Leaders Luncheon

Thomas Hill will be visiting on October 21-22, 2015. The event is to be determined and will be sent out at the end of September in our October Newsletter.

Biography

Thomas Hill serves as President of Kimray, a leading manufacturer of valves and controls for oil and gas production. Kimray began in 1948 and employs about 900 people at its production facility in Oklahoma City and store locations throughout the United States.

As the grandson of Kimray’s founder, Garman Kimmell, Thomas grew up around Kimray. He has worked at the company in virtually every department, giving him an intimate knowledge of the processes and people involved from start to finish. Thomas manages the family-owned company with a sense of stewardship and heritage.

Thomas and his wife, Rebecca, have been married since 1986 and have 6 children. Thomas earned a bachelor’s degree in mechanical engineering at Oklahoma State University. He is co-founder of several running events including the Oklahoma City Memorial Marathon, the Redman Triathlon and the Mother Road 100.

Student Leadership Forum

The forum will take place in the Student Union in the Starlight Terrace (SU 465) at 6:00 pm on September 2, 2015. The forum is open to students, faculty, and staff to listen to Mrs. Bailey speak on Living Intentionally. Please kindly RSVP to Kathryn Gage at kathryn.gage@okstate.edu

Biography

Claire Carter Bailey is proud to be an OSU alumnus. While in school, she served in the initial phase of the Student Union renovation project, was President of the Student Government Association, and was active in a Panhellenic sorority. Following graduation, Claire taught English in Qinhuangdao, China before returning to her hometown, Norman. She now practices law with her husband, Robert. They are expecting their first child, Eva, in October.
